Planned Outage at NH DOL

September 17, 2014.

The NH Department of Labor will not be able to access email or other computer systems on Friday, September 19, 2014. The outage is expected to last just one day and all systems will be accessible to Labor employees again by Monday, September 22, 2014.

The public will be able to send email to Department of Labor as usual throughout the planned outage but staff will have no access to such emails until Monday. Please take this into consideration if making an email inquiry on Friday, September 19, 2014.

This outage may cause some minor delays in responding to requests but the Department will remain open on Friday and will be available by phone.

Please contact the NH Department of Labor if you have any questions about this and other Department of Labor matters.
